

There is a old saying: the goverment is always late to react and when they do they over react. Take care of the rap crap and the obviously disrespectful music out there and leave the freedom of speech things alone. Your job is at stake!! Use common sense or ready your self for the rath of the public.